THE TIMES.

A. S. CLEMENT EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY FEB. 20, 1907.

Admiral Dewey says we can whip Japan, Hobson says Japan can whip us. Take your 'choice,' 'Hobson's' is not ours.

What's Tillman going to do about that dispensary business down in his own state? It was his pet and may not sanction its death.

One of our contemporaries, the Times-Dispatch, we believe, says Bailey was so handy with the use of the term 'liar' that he must have an eye on the White House.

It is rather cheeky on the part of that impudent librarian to be talking of "cheap" Virginians. At any rate he turns out to be a costly luxury. "We told you so."

The Senate says that city mail carriers may be paid as much as $1300 a year. Why not ditto of country mail carriers who furnish their own horses and their rations? The city man goes it on foot and no horse to feed.

The Times-Dispatch says it is "better to be at the mercy of the railroads than at the mercy of the government." Sovereigns should be at the mercy of neither. They are of our making and if after oeing made they don't do just right we will make them again.

In New York schools they are engaged in the superhuman effort of trying to convince the "small boy" that work means play, this is that sawing wood and shoveling snow are mere matters of diversion. As well undertake to persuade him that school hours mean play time.

The Times-Dispatch is right in urging that when hanging in Virginia must be resorted to it shall be done within the penitentiary enclosure. We have had all too much of neck breaking and rope breaking within sight of our homes. There is no need to punish communities along with criminals.

And the Japanese question has been settled by allowing the Japanese children the same rights in the schools of California that the white children enjoy. Why then all this much-ado about nothing? Were the little strangers even impudent enough to demand more? Mr. Roosevelt is a winner from 'way back.' You will hear more of this when the campaign is fairly on for next President.

The American Peace Society is still fighting against a military and naval display at the Jamestown Exposition, and for the life of us we can't understand. That is, we are armies and navies every one and informed person must know and why not see them in imposing and impressive numbers? We expect that the sight of the Bluejackets and guns ought to choke peace rather than war.

South of the James.

There still continues much sickness in our community—most doctors are kept busy.

Mr. C. I. Johnson who has been such a prolonged spell is gradually gaining in strength.

Mr. Hix, the postmaster at Wards, who has underwent such a spell of illness last spring and was forced to take hospital treatment, was stricken suddenly ill on Saturday, the 16th inst.

Little Miss Edna and Miss Claude Randolph, children of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Chumbley, of Richard, were quite sick with grippe the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crews' little daughter, Thelma, also Mrs. D. F. Bixler's youngest son, Rainey, are victims of the awful malady, whooping cough.

Mr. J. D. Jones has been very much neglected for several days.

Mr. H. M. Lewis is getting sick with a relapse of grippe.

Uncle Tim Archer, one of our worthiest of colored citizens of this entire section is slowly recovering from a spell of sickness.

Mr. Clarence Collins had the misfortune of inflicting rather severe wound upon his right knee accidentally striking it against an axe in the hands of Mr. Robert Llewellyn.

Mad dog scare in this section again, one being shot at Mr Harris' store last week. Several other victims of this one are under close observation.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Steger, of Azfell, are on a visit to Mrs. Steger's father, Mr. Willie Simpson.

Mr. W. S. Ayres was visiting his son Jas. D. Ayers and family yesterday.

For Rheumatic Sufferers.

FARMS FOR SALE

Appomattox, Buckingham, Campbell, Amherst and Nelson Counties.

Any farm or business for sale will be advertised in these columns. No charge unless sale is made. Write this office for information.

No. 8. Price $1.00.

This land is four miles southwest of Farmville, in Prince Edward county, and contains 297 acres, about one-half of which is in wood; both oak and pine, much of which is a nice building size. There is good two-story frame dwelling house with five rooms, and is within two miles of daily mail to N. & W. Railway; church and school house about two miles off and both by stone, mill and post-office.

No. 115. Price $1,500.

This farm contains 324 acres and lies near the village of Evergreen in Appomattox county, on the Norfolk & Western Railway. There is a good frame dwelling of one and a half stories, shingle roof and containing five rooms, with all the necessary outbuildings. About 175 acres are in young growth timber. There are about 275 fruit trees on the place. The lands produces average crops of corn, wheat and tobacco. This place is convenient to mill, postoffice, churches &c.

Price, $4,500.

No. 803. 378 acres in Nelson five miles from Arrington station or Southern Railway. 50 acres in timber. Land produces wheat, corn, oats, tobacco, and all fruits. 1,200 fruit trees on the place. A woolen dwelling of eight rooms, two stories high, with shingle roof. Is close to churches, schools, mills, and postoffice.

No. 8. Price $1,000

This farm lies in Prince Edward county, four miles from Prospect Depot on the N. & W. Railroad, convenient to churches, schools and mills, and contains 258 acres, one-half of which is in young growth timber. On the place is a frame house containing three rooms; also some fruit trees of different varieties. Farm has low grounds and produces good crops.

No. 500. Price $3,000

This is a splendid tobacco and grass farm, in Campbell county, three miles from Norfolk & Western Railway, at Mt. Zion, Va., and contains 287 acres. There are several tenant houses on the place. Also store, church and postoffice (daily mail). Good stand for wheelwright and blacksmith. There is another farm adjoining this one which can be had at a low figure also—making in all about 1,000 acres in the immediate neighborhood for sale. There is a fine prospect for minerals on No. 500—copper, iron, gold, &c. and there is about 300,000 feet of lumber on the place.

Price, $2,000.

No. 302. Lies in Nelson county, 13 miles from Rockfish station. 100 acres, 50 in timber, white oak, poplar, chestnut, and locust. Framed dwelling of six rooms, two stories in height, shingle roof. 300 fruit trees on the place, 200 Albemarle pippins in bearing, 100 winesaps five years old. Land produces corn, tobacco and wheat of good quality.

Price, $300 Cash.

No. 800. 100 acres, 35 acres in timber—about 50.00 feet of oak and pine. 100 fruit trees. Land brings corn, wheat, oats, tobacco, hay, etc. It lies in Nelson county, eight miles from Wingina. A log house of five rooms, one and a half stories high.

Price, $.000—Easy terms.

No. 3. Farm of 250 acres, in good condition. Produces good grain and shipping tobacco. About 50 acres in original oak, 50 acres in pine and chestnut. Good frame house of 7 rooms, with tin roof. Is in Prince Edward county, three miles from Pamplin City; convenient to stores, schools, roller mill, and postoffice.

No. 121. 288 Acres. $5,000.

Lies within 2 miles of station, N. & W. Ry. 3-4 under cultivation—mostly in grass. 2-room cottage, four tenement houses; fine outbuildings; 60 acres in fine grass; orchard well watered; every one requires a farmer could wish for; all good fencing. Healthy location.

This farm is well stocked with machinery and live stock, and the owner is willing to sell upon it for 20 years, others all at a bargain, on account of infirmity of age. "There is no better farm in Virginia for the money. Peace and plenty can be had for $5,000."

No. 116.

A tract of land containing 115 acres, on the N & W near Evergreen in Appomattox county. On barn on the place is a splendid opportunity for any one. This little farm is conveniently situated to churches schools and a store. It is a great bargain for the money. Certainly one-half of the land cleared, the remaining one-half stands in second growth woodland.

WHY A FARMER SHOULD KEEP A BANK ACCOUNT.

Farmers as a rule do not keep books of accounts. Their accounts therefore, on the ledger of a bank will afford them a complete record of all their important transactions, involving the payment or receipt of money. A cancelled check, when returned by the bank, at the end of the month, constitutes the safest receipt one can have for showing the payment of money. Paying a laborer, a store account, or any other bills, with a check drawn on a bank, is safer than using money because the person receiving the check must endorse it and the check should be preserved as a receipt.

Money deposited in a bank is not easily or so often "Paid away" when carried a day in ones pocket. Try the experiment for one year of keeping a bank account and see if it does not pay you.

A large number of the most reliable farmers, in this section, have accounts with us. We are very desirous of having the accounts of farmers on our books an we will be glad to furnish, at any time whatever information we can in regard to the subject of banking.

The persons who open accounts with us we furnish check books free of cost.

Where The Money Comes From
Most of the money comes from the users or consumers of farm products. Are you getting your share of all this money? Our new almanac lays down necessary rules for fertilizing, planting, cultivating, top dressing, harvesting, and preparing for market your crops of cotton, tobacco, corn, vegetables, fruits and grains. If you desire big profits, use from 400 to 1000 pounds of high grade
Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers
per acre on all your crops, and you will be agreeably surprised at your greatly increased yields. Ask your fertilizer dealer, or write us for a copy of Virginia-Carolina Fertilizer almanac, which is written by some of the most experienced and successful farmers in the South. While it is free to you, many farmers say the almanac is worth $1.00 to them for its suggestions.

Concord.

Concord flou ishes this week as usual, with notable events and moves among the society, a few of which I mention.

Miss Genieve Driscoll, of Appomattox is the guest of Misses Chassie and Maggie Brooks this week

Miss Emily Thornhill, of the "Hill City" arrived Saturday afternoon as the guest of Mrs. R. W. Straston.

Prof. John G. Fisher spent the day with home people last Sunday, returning on No. 5 that afternoon. Prof. is at present with the N. & W in the auditing department.

Mr J. H. Steele, now Foreman Carpenter of the N. & W. Ry., who has been quite ill since January 4th, became something better and returned to Bedford Sunday the 10th, looking after the work he had in charge there, but somewhat relapsed in his sickness and had to return last Thursday to his home under care of medical attendant, but at this writing is somewhat improving.

Mrs. Jasper Rosser, who has been lingering in slow illness for nearly a year, was taken to Lynchburg today to be hospitalized there it is hop ed she will soon recover.

Miss Annie Steele has decided that she will leave for the Memorial hospital, Richmond, Va., about March 1st, where she will be operated on for appendicitis.

Mr. Thos. H Steele has again returned to Concord after nearly two months services in the dispatcher's office, Crewe, Va. He is now off on vacation and expects to join Southern Florida and other points during his time off.

The beautiful and magnificent home of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Ould was the scene of the most elaborate occasion in celebration of St. Valentine's day that ever graced the society circle within the realms of Concord on Friday night last Feb. 15th. The spacious residence was decorated in the most skillful manner with hearts of all colors and cands es to correspond. After all the spacious capacity, the building was used to its fullest by the multitudinous at endance. An appropriate program was rearranged and held in readiness by Mrs. Gould who conducted the games of the night; such pleasures were opened at 7:30 p m and continued until 2:15 a m.

A beautiful and unique valentine card as a prize, was awarded Mr. T. H. Steele and Miss Annie Brookes who could remember seeing the greatest number of articles on a table in a separate room in ten seconds. The quick sightedness and keen eye of Miss Brooks in discerning the numerous articles, enabled her partner to write names of 54 articles seen in ten seconds. How could Mr. Steele be other than proud of such a partner. At 12 o'clock couples were arranged by [illegible] and an elegant [illegible] was richly [illegible] and the most delicious refreshments and there served in hospitable manner. Too much cannot be said [illegible] home so hospitable [illegible]

The [illegible] adjourning at 2:15 [illegible] pronounced the most delightful entertainment ever given by the [illegible] the pleasurable hours [illegible]

Dickerson--Dickerson.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dickerson on February 12th at two o'clock p. m. the solemn vows of matrimony were made by Rev. Chas. J. Dickerson, the beloved pastor of the Pine Ridge Methodist church and Miss Angie M. Dickerson, the accomplished and attractive daughter of the late Nathan Dickerson, formerly of Charlotte county, but since her father's death several years ago, he has made home with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Dickerson of this county.

The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Fieldings from the Red House. After the ceregony a elegant dinner was served to the guests, after which the happy couple repaired to their home followed by the good wishes of a host of friends and relatives.

Skin Disease of Twenty Years Standing Cured.

I want you to know how much Chamberlain's Salve has done for me. It has cured my face of a skin disease of almost twenty years standing. I have been treated by several as smart physicians as we have in this country and they did me no good, but two boxes of this salve has cured me.—Mrs. Fannie Griffin, Troy, Ala.

Sold by J. R. Atwood, Appomattox; R. J. Carter, Prospect; E. F. Glover, Evergreen.

Wert.

The tobacco crop is about all sold, and very good prices have been received Some of the tobacco from this section has been put in the prisery of the Farmer's Association.

Mr. Floyd Forbes, son of the late John [illegible] Forbes, whose property was destroyed by fire a few years ago, has purchased the farm of Mr. J. H Forbes, at Wert. There is a nice dwelling on this farm, and store house in which is located the post office.

Mr. Sam D. Hix, has purchased the farm of Mrs. M. D. Gilliam, widow of W. E. Gilliam, deceased.

Land deals are numerous at this time of a speculative nature.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company, has offered to transport free to the Jamestown Exposition grounds, all exhibits from Buckingham. The Board of Supervisors has decided to have pictures of dwellings, stock, etc., taken to be sent to the Exposition. Also to send tobacco, corn, wheat, timber and minerals, which will be exhibited in the C & O building. We think the Board of Supervisors did the right thing when they decided that the county should be represented at Jamestown.

The Chestnut Grove school, like ground hog has gone into winter quarters. We wonder if it will sleep six weeks

We are glad to state that Mr. A. A. Morris, has recovered from a severe attact of grppe.

It is reported that Mr. W. E. McCraw, who was recently appointed post master at Andersonville has moved the office to the residence of Mr. E. V. Anderson, which is some distance from the public road and hardly satisfactory to the public.

One of our Buckingham boys has learned that there are many troubles in the way of securing a life partner but if persistence will accomplish the desired end he will at last succeed. Leaving home a few days ago with a happy heart, hoping to return with his bride, and we suppose for convenience, took the prospective bride to the Court House, but alas, the Buckingham clerk thought the girl too young and would not issue the license, and it is said the clerk almost persuaded the girl to remain single a while longer. Each returned home to enjoy single life a while longer. There seems to be no parental objection and we hope this young man will succeed.

Death of Mrs. Sarah Marshall.

Many shall rise up and call her blessed. Our eyes are dim with tears as we write these words, for our own loneliness, nor for her's. For we know with her all is well. For her the waters were neither dark or chilly, as the Saviour in whom she had trusted from girlhood walk'd beside her and spoke the "peace be still" to tempestous waves of life and she simply drifted softly from this earthly shore to the land where there is no more sorrow, sickness or death. In the 87-h year of her life Mrs. Sarah Marshall, after a brief illness passed away in the old home near Red House. Her children were all with her and each and every one tried to do something that would keep her yet awhile longer. But it was not to be; God had pronounced the final "well done"—although strong men broke down and wept like David of old, and would not be comforted at the parting with mother—tears nor prayers could keep her no longer. She had been a loving mother and a faithful wife and she has gone to receive the reward which is given unto the faithful.

Mother tho art in God's paradise, now
I in time's shade
Thou where deathless flowers spring.
I where they fade.

Th u art where the limped fountains play
I in the dust.
Thou where the silver chain shall never break away,
I where twill rust.

But thou will watch near the gates of gold
Until one by one
Thy children shall enter into the fold
And hear the 'well done.'

Mrs. E. C. MARSHALL
Red House, Va.

No 117—80 acres—$2,400. This place is probably one of the best located in the State. It is convenient to R. R. station, mills and schools town property. One of the most progressive little towns in Virginia. The land of this farm is in original growth timber and the timber is worth more than the price asked for the entire place. Land is good, smooth and well watered and cleared. It's no trouble to show prospects like this. If interested inquire for more information.

Cheap—is a mere by-word. Here it has a dictionary meaning.

SUITS and OVERCOATS-
With money in them.
And that's why you get money out of them, in wear. Whatever is put into Clothing you will get out of it, nothing more, nothing less.
THIS STORE-
pays more for its Clothing than any other Clothier - price for price, garment for garment, quality for quality. This cannot be truthfully denied. Selling for CASH makes this possible and along these lines we are fast building a great business. Then one price to all, may strike you favorably.
Test us by comparison.
